

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SS8 NETWORKS RESPONDS TO INACCURATE STATEMENTS MADE BY THE IRRAWADDY TIMES

SAN JOSE – FEBRUARY 10, 2006 – SS8 Networks, the leading provider of Lawful Intercept solutions for telecommunications service providers, today responded to false allegations posted on the online website The Irrawaddy Times. SS8 Networks has not in the past, does not now, or have any plans in the future, to conduct business in Burma. Furthermore, SS8 Networks does not have, nor has it ever established, a business relationship with Ahaed Co. Ltd, Bagan Cybertech Co or the Shin Satellite Co of Thailand as reported earlier by the same website. The information posted on The Irrawaddy News site was and remains incorrect. SS8 Networks fully complies with the Export Administration Regulations set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce.

About SS8 Networks

SS8 Networks provides a complete range of messaging, lawful intercept, and signaling solutions that enable network operators to optimize their investment in traditional, legacy networks while smoothing the transition to 21st century architectures. SS8 Networks has been recognized and named a Red Herring 100 and AlwaysOn company in North America in 2005, for its innovation, quality of management, execution of strategy, and dedication to research and development. SS8 Networks is headquartered in San Jose, Calif., with offices worldwide. www.SS8.com.

NOTE TO EDITORS: SS8 Networks and Xcipio are trademarks of SS8 Networks Inc. All other company names and marks may be trademarks of the respective companies with which they are associated.

###

Media Inquiries:

Richard M. Williams
Connect2 Communications
919.523.0621
rmwilliams@connect2comm.com